

Practice Directions - No. 32 of 1999

Rule 599(3) Uniform Civil Procedure Rules Approval of newspaper for publication of notices

1. Rule 599(3) provides for the publication of a notice of intention to apply for a grant of probate or letters of administration, where the deceased's last known address is not more than 150 kilometres from Brisbane, in a newspaper circulating throughout the State or a newspaper approved for the area of the deceased's last known address by the Chief Justice under a Practice Direction.
2. I approve the "Queensland Times" as a newspaper for publication where the deceased's last known address falls within its circulation district (within the Ipswich City Council boundary which stretches from Camira to Rosewood and from the Cunningham Highway to the Warrego Highway).
