

PRACTICE DIRECTION NUMBER 2 OF 2010

PLANNING AND ENVIRONMENT COURT

CHANGES OF ADDRESS FOR SERVICE IN ACCORDANCE WITH PRACTICE DIRECTIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT

Rule 3 of the Planning and Environment Court Rules 2010 and rule
17(5) of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules

1. This practice direction applies to any party to a proceeding in this court whose solicitor has changed address and who, by reason of a practice direction of the Chief Justice of Queensland (issued prior to or on or after 12 November 2010), would have been relieved of the obligation under rule 17(5) of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules to file in the Supreme Court and serve notice of change of the party's address for service if the proceeding had been a proceeding in the Supreme Court.
2. Such party, by this practice direction, is relieved of that obligation in the Planning and Environment Court in the same way, and subject to the same conditions, as would have applied in the Supreme Court.
3. For the purposes of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules, from the date of the relevant Supreme Court practice direction, that party's address for service in this court will be taken to be the address specified in that Supreme Court practice direction.
4. It will not be necessary for the registrar to place on the file for any such proceeding a copy of any practice direction or other notification of the change of address. The publication of the Supreme Court practice direction is itself deemed to be sufficient notification of the change.
