Court practice notes

Mount Isa registry administrates and stores criminal and civil files in relation to Julia Creek lodgements.

Appearances by telephone.

Where leave is given to appear by telephone, legal representatives or other parties are to provide a telephone number where they can be contacted and must be available at the time agreed upon on the date listed for their appearance. Alternatively, if the legal representative is required to call into the Court, the phone number of the court will be provided. Should they not be available to take or make the call at the agreed time, the matter may proceed in their absence.
