

Practice Directions - No. 17 of 1994

Applications pursuant to the Judicial Review Act 1991

1. This practice direction replaces Practice Direction No 10 of 1993.
2. The final determination of a matter under the Judicial Review Act 1991 directed to be placed on the civil list will be accorded a priority listing on the callover list subject to any contrary direction by a judge.
3. A Judicial Review Act matter not accorded priority will be placed on the callover list with priority as though it was entered for trial on the day upon which it is directed to be placed on the civil list.
