Role in proceeding	(e.g.: separate representative, guardian for Ms Jones.)
--------------------	---

You may only name one person in this subpoena. If you want to subpoena more than one person, you must fill in one form 23 request for subpoena and one form 24 subpoena for each person

This subpoena must be attached to a form 23 'request for subpoena'

You must complete a form 23 'request for subpoena' and attach it to this subpoena. The request for subpoena is addressed to the registrar and asks the registrar to issue the subpoena to direct the subpoena recipient to do the things that you set out below.

The form 23 'request for subpoena' must be attached to this form and both must be filed in the court.

You are required to attend the Childrens Court at (state the place) on/by (date) at (time) to produce to the court/registrar the following documents:

- document ABC; and
- thing DEF.

If the Child Protection Act 1990 section 190 applies you must describe the document as required by that section. If the subpoena recipient is a non-participant and the subpoena is for the production of a document or thing (and does not require the subpoena recipient to give oral evidence) the subpoena recipient may produce the document or the thing to the registry.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THIS SUBPOENA:

- You have the right to apply to the court to have all or part of the subpoena set aside under rule 97 on any sufficient grounds including:
 - Want of relevance;
 - Privilege;
 - Oppressiveness.
- If you wish to apply to the court to have all or part of the subpoena set aside, you may wish to seek legal advice.
- You may be entitled to apply to the court for costs for complying with the subpoena if you are likely to incur substantial costs (except if you are a 'State non-participant' as defined in the Childrens Court Rules 2016, schedule 1). If you wish to ask the court that you be paid your costs of complying with the subpoena, you must advise the party who requested the subpoena that you are likely to incur substantial costs and an estimate of those costs before you comply with the subpoena.
- If you do not advise the party who requested the subpoena about these substantial costs, the court may decide not to order the party to pay your costs.
- Note: If you do not comply with this subpoena the court may issue a warrant for your arrest to compel you to comply.
