

MENTAL HEALTH COURT

Application to inquire into a patient's detention

Mental Health Act 2000 Queensland
Section 427

Approved form No: MHC.06

- ◆ The Mental health Court may, on application made to it, inquire into a patient's detention in an authorised mental health service to decide whether the patient's detention is lawful.
- ◆ The Mental Health Court may refuse the application if it is satisfied the application—
 - ◆ is frivolous or vexatious; or
 - ◆ may more properly be dealt with by the Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) on a review (an involuntary patient can make an application for review by the MHRT at any time).

BLOCK LETTERS

The patient who is the subject of the application

Where the patient is detained

Patient's details

Given name/s	Family name
Date of birth	or Age
Authorised mental health service

State the grounds for the inquiry

NB: Penalties apply for giving information the applicant knows is false or misleading (s522)

ReasonsDeclaration

I am applying to the Mental Health Court to inquire into the above mentioned patient's detention in the above mentioned authorised mental health service to decide whether the patient's detention is lawful.

Person making application

Signature	Print name
	Date <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> / <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> / <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/>
Address
Town/suburb	State QLD	Postcode
Phone No.

To: Registrar, Mental Health Court
GPO Box 48, BRISBANE QLD 4001

continued over page...→

To be completed by Registrar, Mental Health Court

Registrar, Mental Health Court	Noted.
	Signature	seal
	Print name
Date	<input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> / <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> / <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/> <input type="text"/>

To: the parties to the proceedings