

Practice Directions - No. 24 of 1995

Recognition in Queensland of Queen's Counsel and Senior Counsel

Persons who are appointed Queen's Counsel or Senior Counsel in other Australian jurisdictions will by virtue of those appointments alone and without further formality be accorded the status of Senior Counsel for the State of Queensland.

This Practice Direction does not confer or restrict any rights to practice in Queensland as a legal practitioner.

J M MACROSSAN AC
Chief Justice

14 September 1995