

MENTAL HEALTH COURT

Application for Confidentiality Order

Mental Health Act 2000 Queensland
Section 426

The person the subject of the Mental Health Court proceeding

Personal details

Given name/s	Family name
--------------	-------------

Confidentiality Order

- ◆ The Court may make a confidentiality order in respect of:
 - a) information given before it;
 - b) matters contained in a document or part of a document;
 - c) its reasons for a decision;
 - d) reasons for taking into account or refusing to take into account material submitted under section 284(1);
 - e) if the material submitted under section 284(1) was taken into account – how the material was taken into account.
- ◆ A confidentiality order will prohibit or restrict the disclosure of that material to the person the subject of the proceedings.
- ◆ Before making a confidentiality order the Court must be satisfied that the disclosure of the information would:
 - a) cause serious harm to the health of the person; or
 - b) put the safety of someone else at serious risk.
- ◆ If a confidentiality order is made the information or matters withheld must be disclosed to the lawyer/agent of the person concerned and written reasons must be given to the lawyer/agent

Outline the specific document/s or information for which a Confidentiality Order is sought

Documents and/or information to remain confidential

If material is part of a document indicate clearly that part of the document which is the subject of application

see over for additional space

Outline the reasons for which the Confidentiality Order is sought Specify how the disclosure of the information would:

Basis of the request for a Confidentiality Order

- ◆ cause serious harm to the health of the person; or
- ◆ put the safety of someone else at serious risk

see over for additional space

Tick applicable box

Details of person making request

- Victim Reporting Doctor
- Other (specify) _____

Do you wish to amend or withdraw your submission if a Confidentiality Order is not made? Yes No
(If you withdraw your submission it will be returned to you.)

Signature	Print name
	Date / /

