- ⁱ Include this statement if you electronically signed the document, or if you physically signed the document over audio visual link and then sent a scanned copy of that document to the witness.
- ⁱⁱ Include this statement if you or your substitute signatory electronically signed the document using an accepted method under the Oaths Act 1867. Do not include this statement if you signed the document on paper.
- ⁱⁱⁱ Include this statement if the document was made over audio visual link.
- ^{iv} Substitute signatory to include additional information if directed over audio visual link. A person may be directed by audio visual link to sign a document for a signatory only if the person is: an Australian legal practitioner; or a government legal officer under the Legal Profession Act 2007 (who is an Australian lawyer but not an Australian legal practitioner and witnesses documents in the course of the government work engaged in by the officer); or is an employee of the public trustee (s 31P, Oaths Act 1867).
- ^v Insert the witness's capacity that makes them eligible to witness the statutory declaration, including as a special witness under section 16C or part 6A of the Oaths Act 1867. For example, Australian legal practitioner, lawyer, justice of the peace, commissioner for declarations, notary public, a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations approved by the Chief Executive under section 12(2) of the Oaths Act 1867, government legal officer, etc.
- ^{vi} Legal practitioners who witness this document as a special witness must include their law practice (s 13E, Oaths Act 1867). If you are not an Australian legal practitioner or an approved JP or CDec, at least one of the following must be included on the document: the name of your place of employment, your employment or home address, your telephone number or your email address. If there are concerns about domestic, family or sexual violence, you should use your discretion and include the information (from the options listed) that minimises the risk of exposing the location of the signatory or other affected persons.
- ^{vii} Tick this box if you electronically signed the document or if you physically signed the document and sent a scanned copy of that document to the signatory.
- ^{viii} Tick this box if you electronically signed the document using an accepted method under the Oaths Act 1867. Do not tick this box if you signed the document on paper.
- ^{ix} Tick this box if the document was made over audio visual link.
