

Appendix G

Drug Court Program Logic

Appendix G Drug court program logic Activities Outcomes Outputs Inputs Shorter Longer Magistrate builds Offenders are more motivated to Principles of theraped jurisprudence Order imposition Offenders reduce their Magistrate therapeutic relationships address drug use and engage and monitoring offending with offenders with support services Sentencing Court imposes swift and The deterrence effect of the Rewards and Legislation criminal justice system is certain responses to anctions behaviour Principles of risk-need-responsivity Case plans based on Integrated services effectively Referral and identified needs of target identifed needs of Drug court team offenders offenders Policy, procedures, Information Offenders and other key Magistrate makes informed Offenders are less likely to Case management referral protocols provided to stakeholders have increased decisions reoffend while on order and assessments Magistrate confidence in court decisions Integrated service delivery Order Offenders are managed in the Offenders' risk to community is Queensland Drug treatment orders are administration community and are more likely to Corrective Services supervised and urinalysis complete order Offenders have reduced physical Offenders are less likely to use Offenders have access to dependency on drugs and Principles of effective treatment (for health Clinical drugs and more likely to access drug treatment and other increased understanding of drug Offenders have reduced drug use assessment drug treatment in the event of dependency motivation to reduce drug use relapse drug use Treatment Government and non-government Treatment Offenders participate in CBT Offenders able to modify thinking organisations Offenders have improved heatlh programs that address programs errors (including those related to delivering support and wellbeing delivered thinking errors offending behaviour) services Offenders have increased Offenders have increased pro-Offenders acccess housing, Support services engagement with work/education social decision making and employment, education, and delivered and improved living other support services conflict management skills circumstances Support Offenders participate in Family members Offenders linked Offenders have increased access Offenders have improved therapeutic and support with support to pro-social activities and relationships and increased communities/mentoring community integration persons persons ongoing support programs Training, funding and IT Communication, monitoring and governance platform