

PRACTICE DIRECTION
NO. 7 OF 2001

Appearance by Law Clerks in the Applications Jurisdiction

Practice Direction No 24 of 1999 refers to the Court's preparedness to hear articulated clerks on applications and reviews especially where the matter is not contentious. That Direction should now be read as extending also to clerks, employed by law firms, and undertaking a legal practice course approved by the Solicitors' Board.

(Paul de Jersey)
Chief Justice

11 September 2001