Court practice notes

Civil and QCAT matters to be listed by Magistrate.

Hearings: listed by Magistrate and commence at 9:00am.

Long pleas: heard on day set by Magistrate.

1. Order of matters on Criminal callover days

1. In-custody (not including lengthy pleas); 2. Represented adjournments; 3. Unrepresented adjournments; 4. Represented short pleas (no longer than 15 minutes); 5. Unrepresented short pleas; 6. Represented long pleas (towards the end of callover, or on another day); 7. Unrepresented long pleas (to be set towards the end of callover or on another day). (Note: the term 'represented' includes Duty Lawyer matters)

2. Video-link appearances

Video-conferences for bail applications/pleas/contentious ONLY, unless there are exceptional circumstances. Parties are not to address defendants appearing by video-link while the court is sitting (unless with the Court's leave).

3. Adjournments

Initial adjournments of approximately 1 month without plea are acceptable. Further adjournments are for good cause only. The court may of its own motion list matters for hearing to prevent needless delay.
