Background

Justin is a solicitor at Chua Tan Associates, a Melbourne firm practising since 1990, and has worked in mediation and dispute resolution for approximately six and a half years. He was accredited under the National Mediator Accreditation System in October 2021 and continues under AMDRAS. He is also a family law arbitrator, a registered Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner, a parenting coordinator, a collaborative professional and a trained elder mediator. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce with an accounting major, he is a licensed real estate agent and an Accredited Family Business Advisor. Justin reads valuation reports, comparable sales evidence and financial statements without assistance. His mediation practice covers property, land and valuation disputes; contract, debt and commercial matters; shareholder and partnership disputes; family business succession; and estate and intergenerational disputes. A substantial part of his mediation practice involves parties who are unrepresented, under financial pressure or negotiating against a far better resourced opponent. Justin conducts family dispute resolution conferences for Legal Aid Queensland and sits on the panel for Brisbane Mediations. He is available to travel to Brisbane and regional Queensland, and to conduct all or part of a process online.
