Court practice notes

Order of matters on Criminal callover days

1. Telephone links
2. In-custody (not including lengthy pleas)
3. Represented adjournments
4. Unrepresented adjournments
5. Represented short pleas (no longer than 15 minutes)
6. Unrepresented short pleas
7. Represented long pleas (towards the end of callover, or on another day)
8. Unrepresented long pleas (towards the end of Callover or on another day).

(Note: the term 'represented' includes Duty Lawyer matters)

Video-link appearances

Videoconferences for bail applications/pleas/contentious ONLY, unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Firms to notify registry when video links are required or not required.

Parties are not to address defendants appearing by video-link while the court is sitting (unless with the Court's leave).

Adjournments

Initial adjournments of approximately 1 month without plea are acceptable.

Further adjournments are for good cause only. The court may of its own motion list matters for hearing to prevent needless delay.
